It is important to remember that the Women's Liberation Movement is not concerned only with concrete issues, it is also concerned with attitudes and beliefs. One example of this concern is the issue of women's identity. Some Women do not think they are capable of doing anything important. The Women's Liberation Movement helps them to improve their views of themselves. A second issue of Women's liberation Movement is the question of women's roles.

Should a woman work outside the home, should she work if she is married and has children? If a woman decides to take a job outside the home there are many important questions which are raised. Are some jobs closed for her because she is a woman? Will she be paid as much as her fellow workers-men?

Many people agree with the ideals and goal of women's liberation. They feel that women ought to be considered equal to men in every way. They feel that a woman shall be able to decide to stay at home and raise a family, or to stay at home and not raise family, or to go out and work/ or to have a job outside the home and a family as well.
